

Foremarke Hall Sofa

A sofa after a drawing by Thomas Chippendale for the drawing room at Foremarke Hall in Derbyshire. Hand carved and water gilded the boldly shaped serpentine back, carved with a central cartouche of scrolling acanthus and channelled frame and overlapping leaves. The arms without turned scrolls and C scrolls. The well-shaped serpentine front rail centred with another carved cartouche of scrolling acanthus, raised on eight well-shaped cabriole legs carved with C Scrolls and husks terminating in scroll feet.

To be upholstered in client's own material.

Bespoke sizing, design adaptations and finishing available.
