

The Harewood Console

A fine Chippendale George III design fruitwood, tulipwood, marquetry and giltwood pier table. The semi-elliptical top centred to the rear edge by a sunflower and fan motif with six oval patera framed within bell-flower garlands and anthemias with a rosette and bell-flower border and tulipwood cross bandings. The carved giltwood frieze of rosettes on patera-headed blocks flanking stylised shells and foliate scrolled aprons on slender leaf and guilloche carved fluted tapering legs. The original table was made by Thomas Chippendale for Harewood House and is often considered to be the finest of its type.

Bespoke sizing, design adaptations and finishing available.
