

The John Vardy Mirror

An outstanding and highly important George II design carved and painted mirror in the manner of John Vardy, the architect, and his brother Thomas Vardy, a carver. The exceptional frame flanked by female herms emanating from scrolling palms above fantastical bearded masks, the top surmounted by a wonderful mask surrounded by scrolling foliage and C-scrolls, the base of the frame with a waterfall pouring from a grotto, the whole further carved with flowers and foliage. Bespoke sizing, design adaptations and finishing available.
